

SHERRI GUST

Registered Professional Archaeologist &
Qualified Principal Paleontologist

EDUCATION

- 1994 M. S., Anatomy and Cell Biology (Evolutionary Morphology), University of Southern California, Los Angeles
- 1979 B. S., Anthropology (Physical), University of California, Davis

SUMMARY QUALIFICATIONS

Gust has more than 30 years of experience in California, acknowledged credentials for meeting national standards, and is a certified/qualified principal archaeologist and paleontologist in all California cities and counties that maintain lists. Gust is an Associate of the Natural History Museum of Los Angeles County in the Vertebrate Paleontology and Rancho La Brea Sections. She is a Member of the Society of Vertebrate Paleontology, Society for Archaeological Sciences, Society for Historical Archaeology, and the Society for California Archaeology.

SELECTED PROJECTS AND REPORTS

2009 Gust, S. & K. Scott. Paleontological Resources Treatment Plan for the El Casco Project, Riverside County, California. Developed comprehensive paleontological resources management plan, in compliance with the initial EIR, outlining conditions for monitoring and fossil treatment or Southern California Edison and the CPUC under subcontract to RMT.

2008 Gust, S. & A. Glover. Paleontological and Archeological Assessment of the Jackson Avenue Street Improvements and Bridge Project, City of Murrieta California. Cogstone performed archaeological, historic, and paleontological record searches, pedestrian survey, Native American consultation, and preparation of final archaeological and paleontological assessment report with mitigation plan for the City of Murrieta under subcontract to RBF Consulting.

2007 McCormick, S. & S. Gust. Phases II and III Archaeological Evaluation Report for the Jefferson Business Complex Project, City of Murrieta, California. Cogstone performed archaeological survey, Native American consultation, testing, data recovery, artifact analysis, and prepared final report for the City of Murrieta under subcontract to the Garrett Group.

2007 Gust, S. Paleontological Literature Study for the Lake Elsinore Black Basin Wetlands Enhancement Project – Fish Production Ponds, City of Lake Elsinore, California. Cogstone performed paleontological literature study and prepared final assessment report for the City of Lake Elsinore under subcontract to ECORP Consulting Inc.

2005 Glenn, B. & S. Gust. Archaeological and Paleontological Resources Survey and Assessment of Assessors Parcel Number 929-190-002. Cogstone performed archaeological and paleontological record searches, literature review, pedestrian survey of roughly 17 acre parcel, and prepared final assessment report with recommendations for mitigation for the County of Riverside under contract to the developer.

2005 Gust, S. Hicard Ranch, Riverside County California Archaeological Assessment Report. Cogstone performed archaeological record search and literature review, pedestrian survey, and preparation of final assessment report with recommendations to remove the culturally sensitive area from the parcel in question for the County of Riverside under subcontract to HiCard Ranch.