

EDUCATION

1990 M.A., Anthropology (Biological, paleoanthropology emphasis), University of California, Los Angeles
1985 B.A., Anthropology (Physical), California State University, Northridge

EXPERIENCE

Mr. Scott is a qualified paleontologist with more than 25 years of experience in California. He was formerly Curator of Paleontology at the San Bernardino County Museum.

SELECTED PROJECTS

Purple Line Extension (Westside Subway) Section 1, Metro/FTA, Los Angeles. The project involves extension of the subway from Wilshire/Western to Wilshire/La Cienega. Cogstone prepared a report summarizing the first three years of fieldwork which included contributions by Mr. Scott. Sub to WEST. Program Manager. 2016-present

Paleontological Survey with Fossil Collection, Joshua Tree National Park, Mojave and Sonoran Deserts, CA. Lead fieldwork to survey, collect, identify and analyze fossils from 1,234 square miles of national park lands. Principal Paleontologist. 2001-2015

Paleontological Evaluation, Tule Springs Fossil Beds National Monument, Bureau of Land Management, Las Vegas, NV. Performed large-scale survey, fossil collection, identification and analysis of late Pleistocene vertebrates. Worked with BLM to create the National Monument, which was established in 2014. Principal Paleontologist. 2001-2014

Ledi-Geraru Research Project, Institute of Human Origins, Arizona State University, Afar region, Ethiopia. Identification and analysis of late Pleistocene horses and other vertebrates. Researcher. 2015-2016

Natural Trap Cave, National Geographic, WY. Part of team reopening excavation of a natural fossil trap to collect, identify and analyze vertebrate fossils. Researcher. 2014-2016

Diamond Valley Lake Reservoir, Metropolitan Water District of Southern California, Hemet, CA. Directed monitoring, fossil collection, preparation, identification and analysis of more than a two hundred thousand late Pleistocene vertebrates. Author of final mitigation report. Paleontology Field Director. 1993-2000

El Golfo de Santa Clara Project, Arizona Western College, Sonora, Mexico. Long term research project near the Gulf of Mexico to survey, collect, identify and analyze fossils from Colorado River deltaic sediments. Permitted Researcher. 2002-2016

Harry Allen – Northwest 500kV Transmission Line, North Las Vegas, Clark County, NV. The project involved construction of a new transmission line. Supervised and coordinated all fieldwork, laboratory work, and curation. Lead author on final report. Prime. Paleontology Supervisor. 2002-2003

Pacific Pipeline, Kern and Los Angeles Counties, CA. The project entailed construction of a crude oil pipeline from Emidio, CA to the southern Los Angeles area. Supervised and coordinated all field and laboratory work as well as curation. Prime. Paleontology Supervisor. 1997-1999

State Route 58 Expansion, City of Barstow, San Bernardino County, CA. The project included expansion and realignment of California State Route 58. Supervised and coordinated all field and laboratory work as well as curation. Prime. Paleontology Supervisor. 1995-1997

State Route 71 Expansion, City of Chino Hills, San Bernardino County, CA. The project entailed expansion of California State Route 58. Supervised and coordinated all field and laboratory work as well as curation. Prime. Paleontology Supervisor. 1994-1998